2010 EPICS User Conference

"Back To Basics"

Embassy Suites Hotel

Downtown Ft. Worth, Texas

April 18-21, 2010

The 2010 EPICS User Conference will be less expensive than in previous years, but will contain the same high-quality content that you expect and demand.

With extruders in a "conserve cash" mode, we know that a conference has to be lean and invaluable in order to justify attending. That's why we have revamped the 2010 conference, but maintained the same "all business" conference sessions that we have featured in the past.
